

NOTICE OF AUTOMATIC JURISDICTIONAL STAY
PENDING FEDERAL APPEAL
AND NOTICE OF DIVESTMENT OF LOWER COURT AUTHORITY

Comes now the undersigned, appearing specially and not generally, without consent, waiver, or submission to jurisdiction, and provides this formal notice as follows:

Notice is hereby given that a federal appeal has been properly filed and is pending before a court of competent and superior jurisdiction. Upon the filing of said appeal, jurisdiction over the matters involved therein immediately vested in the appellate court, and the lower court was divested of authority to proceed except for strictly ministerial acts.

This jurisdictional divestment operates automatically as a matter of federal appellate law and does not require a discretionary stay, motion, or further order. Any substantive proceedings, hearings, orders, enforcement actions, or coercive measures undertaken by the lower court after the filing of the appeal, and while jurisdiction is vested in the appellate court, are ultra vires, void, or voidable, and without lawful force or effect.

The undersigned expressly preserves and maintains all jurisdictional objections on the record and provides notice that continued action by the lower court in contravention of appellate divestment constitutes preserved reversible error and jurisdictional defect for purposes of appellate, supervisory, and collateral review.

This notice is not a motion, plea, appearance, or request for relief. It is a formal notice of jurisdictional status and preservation of rights only. Silence, non-participation, or refusal to engage in proceedings under divested jurisdiction shall not be construed as consent, waiver, acquiescence, or estoppel.

All rights are expressly reserved without prejudice.

Respectfully submitted without prejudice and under protest,
